Auditor's Report

Management report

The management report should be read together with the interim condensed consolidated financial statements of the group CFE.

Consolidated revenue totalled €906 million, an increase of 4% relative to the first half of 2011 (€870 million), resulting mainly from the increase with 10% of the turnover of DEME.

Operating income fell to €29.4 million (€39.1 million in the first half of 2011) as a result of the lack of activity in the construction division and the lower fleet utilization at DEME during the first quarter.

As a consequence, the net income attributable to the group amounted to €13.9 million (€6.2 million in the first half of 2011).

The increase of the net financial debt up to €20 million at the end of this first half year mainly results from the execution of the investment program of DEME and of an investment in a real estate project.

The order book grew (23%) to €2,935 million (€2,382 million at January 1, 2012). Almost 70% of the order book is related to works to be performed in 2013 and beyond.

1. Order book, revenue and results by division

Construction division

Revenue in the construction division fell by 2.6% year-on-year to €325 million (€333 million in the first half of 2011).

The decline in revenue was due to the civil engineering business in particular. Major contracts won almost four years ago are gradually coming to an end, and the company is struggling to replenish its civil engineering order book in the currently shrinking market. Revenue in the building business grew strongly in Benelux, although it fell internationally.

After a growth over last years, business levels have been affected by the economic crisis in Central Europe and particularly in Poland. In the international area, there has been a temporary decline only resulting from decisions to delay the start of certain projects and from the time needed to start-up such projects.

The division made an operating income of €1.7 million (versus €4.4 million at June 30, 2011).

In Benelux, the decline in income was mainly due to a lack of activity in civil engineering -leading to weaker coverage of overhead costs- and the costs of studies related to several major projects.

Negotiations are ongoing regarding compensation for costs arising from a customer's request for major changes to an important project in The Netherlands. This client has finally chosen for arbitration.

In Central Europe, there were losses in Poland. These were the result of lower business levels.

In the international area, delays with starting and ramping up major contracts also dragged down margins.

Difficulties in the construction division have already prompted CFE to take various reorganisation and restructuring measures:

- the building business in Wallonia has been taken over by BPC, which set up local branches,
- the civil engineering business in Belgium has been placed under a single management team that is responsible for monitoring and co-ordinating activity in Flanders, Wallonia and Brussels, and
- in Poland, the company's structure has been adjusted to suit the market, and a restructuring plan is underway.

Net income totalled €1.7million compared with €3.7 million in June 2011.

The order book remained stable, despite tough economic conditions. At July 1, 2012, the order book amounted to €67 million (€83 million at January 1, 2012).

Real estate development and management services division

The real-estate business remained firm, although sales slowed in some projects. Commercialisation of projects - Lichttoren (Antwerp), Calevoet and Van Maerlant (Brussels) and Château de Beggen (Luxembourg) - are progressing normally.

Operating income rose to €5 million (€9.9 million in June 2011) and net income was €2.8 million (€2.7 million in June 2011).

CFE Immo, in partnership with another real-estate developer, acquired the very well located historic Solvay site in Brussels in the second quarter of 2012. The site will be renovated and will be the home of a major real-estate project in the next few years.

Multitechnics division

Revenue in the multitechnics division fell by 4% (12% at constant consolidation area) to €74 million, compared with €77 million in June 2011.

The fall in revenue mainly affected Nizet in the tertiary business and in the photovoltaic business.

The division generated an operating income of €0.1 million, compared with operating income of €1.7 million in the first half of 2011.

This decline in operating income was mainly attributable to the Nizet companies, for reason mentioned above, and to water-treatment specialist CFE EcoTech, because of the delayed start and ramp-up of contracts obtained in Sri Lanka and, more recently, in Vietnam.

However, operating income at the division's main subsidiaries was satisfactory.

The division posted a net income of €0.7 million compared with a profit of €0.8 million in June 2011.

The order book grew substantially, by 31% or 22% at constant consolidation area, to €148 million (€113 million at January 1, 2012).

Rail-Road division

Revenue in the rail-road division fell by 4% (8% at constant consolidation area) to €41 million, compared with €43 million in the first half of 2011. This decline is simply the result of project scheduling and is therefore not really meaningful.

Operating income amounts to €1.7 million, compared with €2.6 million in June 2011. In general, the division's various companies posted satisfactory earnings. The fall in operating income arose from a temporary decline in production volumes at coating plants in the roads business.

Net income totalled €1.0 million, compared with €2.0 million in June 2011.

CFE acquired Remacom in the first quarter of 2012. This company, which is based in the Ghent region, specialises in laying rail tracks. The acquisition expanded CFE's activities in the rail industry, joining ENGEMA and Louis Stevens & Co, which specialise in electrification (overhead contact lines) and signalling.

The order book grew substantially, by 13% (or 6% at constant consolidation area), reaching almost €86 million (€76 million at January 1, 2012).

Dredging and environment division

(The amounts stated in this section relating to DEME are at 100%, whereas CFE owns 50% of the company).

DEME's revenue rose by 10% year-on-year to €904 million (€825 million in the first half of 2011).

EBITDA(*) increased by 4.6% to €144.6 million, as opposed to €138.2 million in June 2011. Operating income is reduced to €51.2 million versus €61.8 million in the first half of 2011. This evolution was due to a higher level of depreciation charges, along with lower fleet utilisation in the first quarter of 2012 - as announced in the May 2012 interim statement - since some dredgers were undergoing major maintenance or repairs.

Net income attributable to the group totalled €27.7 million versus €41.0 million at June 30, 2011.

The order book rose further during the period. It grew by 43% to €3,446 million (€2,404 million at January 1, 2011).

DEME won some major orders in the first half of 2012. In Australia, DEME won the contract to dredge the approach channel, the manoeuvring area and the berths for the Wheatstone LNG project. In Qatar, DEME's Medco subsidiary - in which it owns a 44% stake - won the contract to dredge the approach channel for the New Port project. The latter contract includes dredging the basin for the naval base, reclaiming 4.5km² of land and building two breakwaters using rock placement techniques. At the end of the period, DEME signed a contract with Northwind to act as main contractor for the construction and installation of foundations for this wind-power project off the Belgian coast.

DEME continued its multi-year investment program. The Neptune jack-up vessel has been operational since March 2012. DEME's new rock-cutter suction dredger, the Ambiorix, was named in May 2012. The construction of the Innovation I platform vessel is nearing completion, and it should be operational in September 2012, bringing the aforementioned investment program to an end.

(*) EBITDA = EBIT + depreciations + other non cash items + share in the result of associated companies.

PPP – Concessions division

Operating income turned positive and amounted to 1.9€ million (a loss of €1.4 million in June 2011). It was driven by 45%-owned subsidiary Rent-A-Port, whose activities in Vietnam are progressing well. Net income amounts to €0.8 million, compared with a loss of €1.7 million in June 2011.

2. Comments on the condensed consolidated statement of financial position, cash flow and CAPEX

Net financial debt (*) at the end of June 2012 stood at €420 million, compared with €351 million at the end of 2011. This figure comprises €456 million of long-term debt and €36 million of net short-term debt.

Cash flow from investing activities amounted to €128 million for the half-year, compared with €84 million in the first half of 2011. Investments mainly arose from DEME's capital investment program.

(*) Net financial debt does not include the fair value of derivative instruments, which amounts to a debt of €39.4 million.

The €7 million fall in the working capital was the result of measures relating to the management of the current cash position.

After payment of the dividend with respect to 2011 (€5.1 million), shareholders' equity totalled €505.5 million.

CFE has €65 million of confirmed medium-term credit facilities for its general financing needs, which were not utilized at June 30, 2012. DEME's purchases of dredgers and other maritime equipment are subject to separate financing arrangements linked to these assets.

In late May 2012, CFE issued a 6-year bonds amounting €100,000,000 maturing on June 21, 2018. The bond issue was a success, and was fully subscribed.

3. 2012 outlook

Given the high volume of the order book and the gradual start-up of major contracts mentioned above, business levels will gradually increase in the second half of 2012.

Operating income is likely to improve in the second half in the contracting businesses (construction, multitechnics and rail-road), and at DEME. However, this improvement will not make up entirely for the year-on-year decline seen in June 2012.

The outlook for 2013 and 2014 is positive, due to the quality of the dredging order book.

4. Risks and uncertainties

Risks related to the sector of activity described in the annual report 2011 are still applicable during the second halfyear 2012.

5. Transactions with related parties

In the first half year of 2012, there was no significant variation in the nature of transactions with related parties compared to December, 31 2011.

6. Shareholder base

On August 16, 2012, VINCI Construction informed CFE, in accordance with Article 74 of the Belgian act of April 1, 2007, that there had been no change in the ownership of its capital since the previous notification on August 19, 2009, when it was 46.84%.

7. Corporate governance

On August 23, 2012, the board of directors decided to convene a special shareholders' meeting on October 10, 2012, to vote on the change-of-control clause contained in the prospectus relating to the May 29, 2012 bond issue.

Companies on which the group CFE exerts a jointly control with other shareholders are consolidated according to the proportionate method of consolidation. This relates in particular to DEME, Rent a Port and some entities of the Real Estate and Associated Services segment.

Companies on which the group CFE exerts a significant influence are consolidated according to the equity method. This relates in particular to Locorail NV, Coentunnel Company NV and C-Power at DEME.

Evolution of the consolidation scope

Number of entities	June 2012	December 2011
Global method of consolidation	60	57
Proportionate method of consolidation	154	153
Equity method	28	18
Total	242	228

2.2. INTRA-GROUP OPERATIONS

Reciprocal transactions and operations of assets, liabilities, profit and loss between integrated companies are eliminated in the consolidated accounts. This elimination process is:

- totally if the operation is realized between two subsidiaries;
- in proportion of the proportionate consolidated company's integration rate if the operation is realized between a globally integrated company and a proportionate integrated company;
- in proportion of the associate's integration rate in the case of an internal result realized between a global integrated company and a company consolidated according to the equity method.

2.3. CONVERSION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR FOREIGN COMPANIES AND ESTABLISHMENTS.

In main cases, the functional currency of companies and establishments correspond to the currency of the related country.

Financial statements of foreign companies whereas the functional currency is different from the consolidated accounts reporting currency of the group are translated at the closing rate for the balance sheet elements, and at the average rate of the period for the results elements. Exchange differences are recorded in "translation differences" in the consolidated reserves

Goodwill related to foreign companies is considered to be included in the acquired assets and liabilities and are therefore translated at the closing rate.

2.4. FOREIGN CURRENCIES TRANSACTIONS

Foreign currencies transactions are converted into Euro using the conversion rate at the date of the operation. At closing period, the financial assets and monetary liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are converted into Euro at the exchange closing rate of the period. The exchange losses and gains coming from these operations are recognized in the section "exchange result" and are presented in other financial products and other financial expenses in the income statement.

The exchange gains and losses on loans denominated in foreign currencies or on exchange derivative products used for hedging investments in foreign subsidiaries are recorded under translation differences in equity.

3. RULES AND EVALUATION METHODS

3.1. RECOURSE TO ESTIMATES

The establishment of financial statements according to IFRS standards requires to carry out estimates and to formulate assumptions which affect the amounts appearing in the financial statements.

These estimates considerate an assumption of continuity of operations and are established according to information available during their establishment. The estimates can be revised if the circumstances on which they were founded evolve/move or in consequence of new information. The real results can be different from these estimates.

The use of estimates concerns in particular following elements:

- valuation of the result according to the progress of the construction contracts;
- valuations used for tests of impairments;
- valuation of share-based payments (costs IFRS 2);
- valuations of pensions;
- valuations of the provisions;
- valuation of the financial instruments at fair value, based on the market to market approach received from financial institutions.

3.2. RULES AND SPECIFIC EVALUATION METHOD APPLIED BY THE GROUP IN THE FRAMEWORK OF INTERIM REPORTS

Pensions benefits obligations

No actuarial calculations have been made for the condensed interim consolidated account. The cost of employee benefits for the first six months is equal to half of the net charges for 2012 on the basis of actuarial assumptions at December 31, 2011.

4. SEGMENT REPORTING

This segment is made of the activities of Engema (energy transmission and railway signalling), Louis Stevens & Co (railway signalling) – activities previously disclosed in the multitechnical segment, the Road activity of “Aannemingen Van Wellen” previously included in the construction segment and the activities of Remacom NV specialized in the laying of rail tracks.

The activity related to the waste water treatment has been transferred from the construction segment to the multitechnical segment.

The comments hereunder are based on the new structure.

The unaffected goodwill of 2,995 thousand euro is due to the fact that CFE Group extends its competences in the railway industry by integrating the laying of rail tracks. This company is consolidated by the global method.

The initial accounting for the period has been temporary set. As a consequence, the fair value related to the contingent assets and liabilities can still be changed during 12 months after the acquisition date.

This tax rate is lower than the theoretical tax rate 33.99% (Belgian corporate tax rate) which is mainly due to the fact of lower tax rate for foreign subsidiaries and to the use of previously non recognized losses.

- other commitments granted for an amount of 210,226 thousand Euro (2011: 192,435 thousand Euro).

21. COMMITMENTS RECEIVED

Commitments received by the group CFE other than guarantees amounted to 63,467 thousand Euro (2011: 99,559 thousand Euro) for the 1st semester of 2012.

22. CLAIMS

The CFE group has a number of claims that we qualify as normal for the construction industry. In most of the cases, the group CFE expects to conclude a transactional convention with the adverse part, which substantially reduced the number of procedures.

Currently, negotiations are on-going regarding some receivables related to the costs incurred due to a change in the work to perform for a project in Holland. At the moment, it is not possible to assess the amount expected to recover as the client has finally chosen for an arbitrage.

23. RELATED PARTIES

The transactions with related parties concern mainly the operations with the entities in which CFE has a significant influence or a joint control.

The transactions between related parties are executed at arm's length.

In the first half year of 2012, there was no significant variation in the nature of transactions with related parties compared to December 31, 2011.

24. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

None.

25. IMPACT OF FOREIGN CURRENCIES

The international activities of the group CFE for the construction, real estate & associated services and multi-technical segments are mainly within the Euro zone. As a consequence, the exposure to exchange risk and the impact on financial statements are limited. However, the dredging and environment segment realize a large part of its business internationally. These activities are mainly in US Dollars or in currencies strictly related to the US Dollar. DEME uses financial instruments to hedge exchange rate risk.

26. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The research and development within CFE is related to the DBFM contracts ("Design, Build, Finance, Maintain"). For DEME, the research and development relate to the improvement of the efficiency of the maritime-equipment. This company also lead a program in partnership with Belgian universities and the Flemish Region in order to develop the production of eco-friendly energy in the maritime-environment.

27. SEASONAL NATURE OF THE BUSINESS

The activity of construction is seasonal and depends on the climatic conditions of the winter. However, taking into account the diversification of the CFE group, the impact is relatively limited

Turnover and results achieved in the first half year cannot be extrapolated over the full year. The seasonal effect on the business is reflected in a higher use of cash in the first half year.

No adjustments were made to take account of the impact of seasonal factors on the group's financial statements for the first half year.

Income and expenses of the group from normal business operations which are subject to a seasonal, cyclical or occasional nature were recognized following the same valuation as at the year end. They were therefore neither anticipated nor deferred in the interim financial statements.

28. STATUTORY AUDITORS REPORT

We have performed a limited review of the accompanying consolidated condensed balance sheet, condensed statement of comprehensive income, condensed cash flow statement, condensed statement of changes in equity and selective notes 1 to 27 (jointly the "interim financial information") of Compagnie d'Entreprises CFE SA ("the company") and its subsidiaries (jointly "the group") for the six-month period ended 30 June 2012. The board of directors of the company is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this interim financial information. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

The interim financial information has been prepared in accordance with international financial reporting standard IAS 34 – Interim Financial Reporting as adopted by the European Union.

Our limited review of the interim financial information was conducted in accordance with international standard ISRE 2410 – Review of interim financial information performed by the independent auditor of the entity. A limited review consists of making inquiries of group management and applying analytical and other review procedures to the interim financial information and underlying financial data. A limited review is substantially less in scope than an audit performed in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the interim financial information.

Based on our limited review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim financial information for the six-month period ended 30 June 2012 is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 – Interim Financial Reporting as adopted by the European Union.
